

These are my friends.

She is my elementary school's friend (the left one). We have known each other for ten years.

We are the best friends. The middle one's name is Apple, the right one's name is Debbie.

This is my family. We were gathering because of my grandpa's birthday.

This is my family. We went to Malaysia without my brother.

He is my brother. We went to Prathet, Thai with my family.

They are my junior high school's friends. They don't like to take a picture.

They are my cram school's partners. We have known each other for eight years.

We went to Japan. The ones beside me are my dad and sister. I am the right one.

She is my mother. We like to travel in Taiwan.